RISK CONTROL SERVICES

Do you ever wish you had help identifying loss-causing conditions in your business? With Westfield you do.

We can assist you in improving the safety of your operations to help avoid injuries and damage. Westfield risk control services stress the value of preventing a loss before it occurs. We do this by recommending results-oriented goals and objectives based on our extensive experience with construction operations.

Westfield customers have access to online tools for risk assessment and best practices in safety. We provide you with discounts on proven-effective tools from leading safety services. To benefit from this useful information simply visit us at www.westfieldinsurance.com.

Westfield Insurance and your independent agent are committed to offering practical safety solutions, allowing you to focus on what you know best – construction.

ARE YOU COVERED?

Questions to consider when discussing your insurance needs with your independent agent ...

- Are you covered if a third party is injured on a job site where you are working?
- Are your tools and equipment properly protected?
- In the event of a property claim on a building you are constructing, do you have the necessary builders risk coverage to protect your interests?
- Are you protected if a driver is involved in an auto accident delivering a product?
- Are your employees protected if they are injured in the workplace?

*The Westfield Signature Series Contractors Program.
Coverages built with your specific needs in mind.*
